

C. Stuart Houston, OC, SOM, DLitt, DCnL, MD, FRCPC

MD, University of Manitoba, 1951. FRCPC, Diagnostic Radiology, 1964.

DLitt, University of Saskatchewan, 1987

Saskatchewan Order of Merit, 1992

Officer, Order of Canada, 1993

Marion Jenkinson Service Award, American Ornithologists' Union, 2004

In general practice with parents at Yorkton - 1951-55 and 1956-60. Began training in Diagnostic Radiology in University Hospital, Saskatoon in 1960 with one year at Children's Hospital Medical Center, Harvard University, where recipient of the George Von L. Meyer Memorial Scholarship.

Joined Department of Diagnostic Radiology, University of Saskatchewan, 1964, reached rank of Professor in 1969. Retired 1996. Fourth recipient, Gold Medal, Canadian Association of Radiologists, 1997.

Head, Department of Medical Imaging, July 1982-June 1987.

Published works in Medicine and History of Medicine to 31 May 2007 number 284, including 5 books, 17 chapters in books, 66 original scientific articles, 60 book reviews, 72 abstracts and 63 editorials and letters [Books are listed below].

Published works in Ornithology and Natural History number 621, including 6 books, 38 chapters in books, 276 original papers, 145 book reviews, 47 abstracts, and 107 editorials, memorials and letters.

Three chapters (Pelvis & Hips, Miscellaneous Skeletal Disorders, Skeletal Manifestations of Metabolic and Endocrine Disorders) in: Pediatric Skeletal Radiology. Williams and Wilkins, 1991.

To 31 Dec 2005 Stuart and Mary and subpermittees have banded 134,227 birds of 207 species with 3335 recoveries of 81 species (highest or 2nd highest list for a private bander in Canada)

Editor, Journal of the Canadian Association of Radiologists, 1976-81.