

Educators' Workshop 2022

Science of the Hunter and the Berry Picker

Nov. 25-27, 2022

Are you an educator? Come to our 3-day hands-on workshop and explore weaving Traditional Knowledge into synchrotron science this November at the Canadian Light Source, located on the University of Saskatchewan campus in Saskatoon, Treaty 6, and Homeland of the Métis!

Traditional Knowledge Keeper will guide us during the workshop!

Kathy Wahpepah

Canadian Light Source
Centre canadien de rayonnement synchrotron

Agenda

Day One	Day Two	Day Three
Opening & Synchrotron/Facility Tour	Berry Creation Science	CLS Physics Activity
Hunting Research	Berry Sample Prep and DNA Protein Lab	Thunderbirds of Physics
Indigenous and Mainstream Language of Science	Berry Beamtime on IDEAS Beamline	CLS Education Projects and Resources
Traditional Knowledge to a Synchrotron Scientist: It's in the DNA	Data Review	Closing and Traditional Knowledge Keeper Comments

Accommodations

Accommodations can be found in many hotels located in downtown Saskatoon and near the University of Saskatchewan campus. See Tourism Saskatoon for more information.

Funding

Limited travel funding available for Canadian residents. Please inquire when registering.

Cost

$300.00 + GST
Includes lunches, evening social, and teaching resource package.

Training

Online safety training is required and to be completed before the workshop begins.

Scan the QR Code for more information and to apply.
Application deadline is October 15th, 2022.

Contact Us: education@lightsource.ca