Educators' Workshop 2022

Science of the Hunter and the Berry Picker

Nov. 25-27, 2022

Are you an educator? Come to our 3-day hands-on workshop and explore weaving Traditional Knowledge into synchrotron science this November at the Canadian Light Source, located on the University of Saskatchewan campus in Saskatoon, Treaty 6, and Homeland of the Métis!

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Agenda</th>
<th>Day One</th>
<th>Day Two</th>
<th>Day Three</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Day One</td>
<td>Opening &amp; Synchrotron/Facility Tour</td>
<td>Berry Creation Science</td>
<td>Traditional Knowledge Keeper Panel</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Hunting Research</td>
<td>Berry Sample Prep and DNA Protein Lab</td>
<td>Thunderbirds of Physics</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Indigenous and Mainstream Language of Science</td>
<td>Berry Beamtime on IDEAS Beamline</td>
<td>CLS Education Projects and Resources</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Traditional Knowledge to a Synchrotron Scientist: It's in the DNA</td>
<td>Data Review</td>
<td>Closing and Traditional Knowledge Keeper Comments</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Accommodations
Accommodations can be found in many hotels located in downtown Saskatoon and near the University of Saskatchewan campus. See Tourism Saskatoon for more information.

Funding
Limited travel funding available for Canadian residents. Please inquire when registering.

Cost
$300.00 + GST
Includes lunches, evening social, and teaching resource package.

Training
Online safety training is required and to be completed before the workshop begins.

Scan the QR Code for more information and to apply.
Application deadline is October 15th, 2022.

Contact Us: education@lightsource.ca